III. ACCOMMODATIONS REQUESTED

The medical provider in charge of treatment and/or care must complete the Accommodations Requested portion of the Provider section.

IV. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Requests for accommodations must be supported by the following requested documentation from third parties. Documentation created by you or your family will not be considered. All documentation must be submitted at the same time as your request for special accommodations.

- 1- Medical documentation: Supporting medical documentation from a qualified professional who conducted an individualized assessment and who provided the diagnosis which forms the basis for the request for special accommodations MUST be provided. If you are requesting special accommodations based on more than one diagnosis, then you MUST provide the stated medical documentation for each diagnosis. Each medical provider MUST complete the following form. If the provider does not use BSL's form, and information is missed or not provided, special accommodations may not be granted until this issue is remedied.
- 2- If you answered in the affirmative to Questions 6, 7 or 8, you MUST provide verifying documentation of your accommodation history. This may be achieved by requesting a certification of accommodation history from the institution, and/or providing a copy of the letter(s) received notifying you of your special accommodation requested being granted, and/or providing copies of your IEP or 504 Plan(s).

V. CERTIFICATION THAT INFORMATION SUPPLIED IS TRUE AND COMPLETE

- ____ Initial The information I have provided in support of my request for test accommodations is true and complete.
- ____ Initial I understand that if Birmingham School of Law determines that I, or a third party on my behalf, submitted as part of this request any information or documentation that is false, inaccurate, or intentionally misleading, Birmingham School of Law reserves the right deny my application, submit my transgression to the Honor Court for investigation, or both.
- ____ Initial I understand that both my request for test accommodations and all supporting documentation may be submitted for evaluation to one or more qualified professionals retained by Birmingham School of Law, and I authorize such disclosure.
- ____ Initial I understand that all necessary documentation and information must be provided to BSL within thirty (30) days of the beginning of the final exam period of my first term of law school, or within thirty (30) days of diagnosis, whichever is most recent, and that my request for test accommodations will not be considered and will be denied if the deadline is missed.

____ Initial I understand my accommodation only applies to in-class graded midterm and final examinations and that as a general rule, special testing accommodations do not extend to written assignments to be completed outside of class.

____ Initial I understand “private” testing is administered to resemble conditions at the Alabama Bar exam and is administered in a classroom with other students spaced out accordingly unless the accommodation granted allows for a reader and/or typist- those such accommodations are administered in a room without other students.

____ Initial I understand if I am granted leave for breaks, any break taken comes out of my overall time, and I may not bring or access any materials or electronics.
